

Curious about Cuba?

Learn about Arts, Culture and U.S. - Cuba Relations

March 1st-March 11th 2019

Cuba is an island home to 11 million people, most of whom grew up under the U.S. blockade/embargo. Learn how a socialist country manages to provide social services, education, health care, food, housing, safety and access to the arts to its citizens in an equitable manner, under the pressure of an embargo. Explore the many ways that this island nation, just 90 miles from our shore, has met these challenges for nearly 60 years in the face of opposition from its neighbor to the north.

We will meet with and learn from people engaged in:

- Working to change U.S. - Cuba relations.
- Social programs - dialogue with participants.
- Current education, both youth and communities.
- Visual arts, painters, print-makers, mosaics, book-makers. visit galleries and museums.
- The effects of the embargo and why it must end.
- Art, poetry, literature and music that sustains the Cuban soul & enjoy performance events.

Total Cost: $2295 plus airfare & visa fee
Deposit of $250 due November 30th, 2018
Balance of $2045 due December 21st, 2018

Delegation fee covers all lodging, meals, interpretation and transportation within Cuba. You will also receive extensive reading material and activist tools.

For more information, please contact:

Diane Stradling, Witness for Peace, dianestradling@gmail.com, (603) 431-2525

— calls returned after Dec. 8th

