

Join us for an Eyewitness Account of Life in Cuba in 2019 and the Effects of the U.S. Blockade!

Hear from the Boston Participants of the International May Day Work Brigade

Judy Freiwirth, Aba Taylor, and Bob Mulcahy

With Al Foster

Moderated by Nalda Vigezzi, National Network on Cuba Co-Chair

Thurs. December 5th 7:00 - 9:00 PM

First Baptist Jamaica Plain, 633 Center St., Jamaica Plain, MA

Sponsored by the July 26th Boston-Cuba Solidarity Coalition

Co-sponsored by First Baptist Jamaica Plain

Hear about:

- Challenges for Cuba due to recent US policies (Helms-Burton Act, new travel restrictions) and the ongoing US Blockade
- The 2019 May Day March with over 1 million people
- The new Cuban constitution referendum process which included over 135,000 local discussions
- Housing, health care, education, farming, neighborhood organizing, support of the arts!
- Significance of Work Brigades in Cuba
- Nov. International Solidarity conference in Havana

